PROFESSIONAL SERVICE ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Date: _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email Address: _____

This letter confirms and specifies the terms of our Professional Services Engagement with you, and to clarify the nature and extent of the work we will do for you. In order to ensure a clear understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all of our clients to read and confirm the following arrangements.

Our Responsibilities

We will prepare your 2017 federal and requested state income tax returns from information you give us. To that end, we are only a telephone call away from answering your questions.

We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for a timely clarification of some of the information provided to us.

We will furnish questionnaires and/or worksheets as aides to gather the necessary information; your use of the forms will assist in keeping pertinent information from being overlooked.

We will use professional judgment in resolving issues when the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations and other supportable positions. Unless you instruct us otherwise, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible.

We will act with integrity, honesty, and openness in everything we do for and with you. We will respect absolutely the confidentiality of our working relationship.

We will not provide any investment advisory services. Neither Askey, Askey & Associates, CPA, LLC, nor any of its employees or members are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940 as investment advisors. In our relationship, we are often advisors, not advocates, with regard to investment advice. We will advise you on the implications in light of today's tax laws and economy of specific matters you bring to our attention.

The Engagement does not include any services not specifically stated in this letter. However, we would be pleased to consult with you about income tax matters such as proposed or completed transactions, income tax projections, and for research in connection with such matters. We will render additional invoices for such services at our standard billing rates.

Your Responsibilities

Your responsibility is to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete, accurate, and timely returns. To that end, you will treat material we send you as important and worthy of your time and attention.

You should retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority.

It is also your responsibility to carefully examine and approve your completed tax returns before signing and mailing them to the tax authorities. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions or inadequately supported documentation, nor for resulting taxes, penalties and interest.

You represent that the information you provide to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that your expenses for meals, entertainment, travel, business gifts, charitable contributions, dues and memberships, and vehicle use are supported by records as required by law. We will not verify this information, however, we may ask for clarification of the information.

Timeframes

If we do not receive your information before March 26, 2018, we cannot guarantee that your returns will be completed before the filing deadline. If we are not able to complete your return by the deadline because you did not provide your information before March 26, 2018, you solely will be responsible for any penalties or interest that result.

If you wish us to prepare an extension of your returns, an additional fee will be charged. Please note that an extension extends the time for filing a return; any income tax due must still be paid with the extension. If you are going to request a filing extension, please make your request before April 1, 2018; otherwise we cannot guarantee it will be completed by the deadline.

Notice About Penalties

Current tax code law provides for a penalty to be imposed where a taxpayer makes a substantial understatement of their tax liability. For individual taxpayers, a substantial understatement exists when the understatement for the year exceeds the greater of 10 percent of the tax required to be shown on the return, or $5,000.00. The penalty is 20 percent of the tax underpayment.

Taxpayers may seek to avoid all or part of a penalty by showing (1) that they acted in good faith and there was reasonable cause for understatement; (2) that the understatement was based on substantial authority; or (3) that the relevant facts affecting the item's tax treatment were adequately disclosed on Form 8275/8275-R attached to the return with reasonable basis.

You agree to advise us if you wish disclosure to be made in your returns or if you desire us to identify or perform research with respect to any material tax issues for the purpose of ascertaining whether, in our opinion, there is "substantial authority" for the position proposed to be taken on such issue in your returns.

The law provides for a penalty of 20 percent to be imposed on any underpayment that results from negligence or disregard of rules or regulations - negligence "includes any failure to make a reasonable attempt to comply..." with the code; disregard "includes any careless, reckless or intentional disregard." Taxpayers may seek to avoid all or part of the penalty by showing they acted in good faith and can demonstrate reasonable basis for the understatement.

Current tax code provides for a failure to file penalty of 5% per month on the total tax liability that is owed. This penalty cannot exceed 25% of the tax liability.

Current tax code also provides for a failure-to-pay penalty at .5% monthly accrual on the outstanding tax balance. The maximum amount of this penalty is also 25%. However, when the failure-to-file and failure-to-pay penalties are assessed together their combined maximum is 25% of the unpaid liability.

Granting IRS Permission to Contact Our Firm

A taxpayer may authorize the IRS to discuss their tax return with the CPA who signed the taxpayer's return as the return preparer. The authorization is granted by making the election in the signature area of the tax return. By making the election on the tax return, you are granting the IRS permission to contact our firm with questions that may arise during the processing of your return. You would also be granting our firm the permission to (1) provide the IRS with any information that may be missing from your return; (2) call the IRS to inquire on the processing of your return or on the status of your refund; and (3) respond to any IRS notices that you have provided to our firm relating to mathematical errors, offsets, and return preparation. Please note that our firm will not receive separate copies of IRS notices; therefore, you must provide us with copies of any notices you receive from the IRS. Once elected, the authorization cannot be revoked. The authorization is valid for one year after the due date for filing the tax return.

It is our firm's policy to better and more efficiently serve our clients to grant authorization. As part of this agreement, you hereby agree to grant limited authorization for Askey, Askey & Associates, CPA, LLC to contact the IRS on your behalf as discussed in the above paragraph. Please check this box if you do not authorize us to discuss matters with the IRS.

AUTHORIZATION NOT GRANTED.

Federal law has extended the attorney-client privilege to some, but not all, communications between a client and the client's CPA. The privilege applies only to non-criminal tax matters that are before the IRS or brought by or against the U.S. Government in a federal court. The communications must be made in connection with tax advice. Communications solely concerning the preparation of a tax return will not be privileged.

In addition, your confidentiality privilege can be inadvertently waived if you discuss the contents of any privileged communication with a third party, such as a lending institution, a friend, or a business associate. We recommend that you contact us before releasing any privileged information to a third party.

If we are asked to disclose any privileged communication, unless we are required to disclose the communication by law, we will not provide such disclosure until you have had an opportunity to argue that the communication is privileged. You agree to pay any and all reasonable expenses that we incur, including legal fees, that are a result of attempts to protect any communication as privileged.

Please Be Advised

We are responsible for preparing only the returns listed above. Our fee does not include responding to inquiries or examination by taxing authorities. However, we are available to represent you, and our fees are at our standard rates for such services and would be covered under a separate engagement letter.

Your returns may be selected for review by a taxing authority. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for time and expenses incurred.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as necessary for preparation of the income tax returns.

In the event that Askey, Askey, & Associates, CPA, LLC records are subpoenaed pursuant to any third party litigation, you agree that this engagement letter extends to any additional time or expenses incurred by Askey, Askey, & Associates, CPA, LLC, at our then prevailing rates, required to respond to said litigation.

We subscribe to a program of peer review for maintenance of quality control in our office. As part of this program, your return may be selected for review by other CPAs under strict rules of confidentiality. Your acceptance below constitutes your agreement for disclosure under the program.

The Affordable Care Act

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) added various new health insurance mandates, penalties, and credits beginning in 2014. Our services in connection with this engagement are not designed to address the legal or regulatory aspects of your compliance with the Affordable Care Act. In preparing your individual tax returns, we will rely solely on the information you provide us regarding the ACA mandates and you agree to accept full responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of this information, as well as your compliance with the ACA. As such, we will not be responsible for any taxes, penalties, or interest that may be assessed.

Foreign Financial Interest

Please note that any person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the United States (includes individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, and estates) having a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, bank accounts, securities, or other financial accounts having an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 at any time during the calendar year in a foreign country, shall report such a relationship. Although there are some limited exceptions, filing requirements also apply to taxpayers that have direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign account(s). For example, a corporate-owned foreign account would require filings by the corporation and by the individual corporate officers with signature authority. Failure to disclose the required information to the U.S. Department of the Treasury may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

If you and/or your entity have a financial interest in, or signature authority over, any foreign accounts, you are responsible for providing our firm with all the information necessary to prepare the Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR) required by the U.S. Department of the Treasury in order for the FBAR to be received by the Department on or before the due date. Beginning with the 2017 tax filing season, the FBAR filing deadline is April 15th and follows the federal income tax due date guidance, which notes that if the tax due date falls on a weekend or legal holiday, the form is considered timely filed if filed on the next business day. An automatic 6-month extension will be granted to October 15th of each tax year.

Electronic filing of the FBAR is mandatory using the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) e-filing system located on the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). If you would like our firm to submit your electronic FBAR (FinCEN Form 114) on your behalf, we must receive a signed consent form (FinCEN Form 114a) from you prior to submitting the foreign reporting form. If you do not provide our firm with information regarding all interests you have in a foreign account, or if we do not timely receive your signed authorization to file your foreign reporting form, we will not be able to prepare and file the required disclosure statements.

Additionally, the IRS also requires information reporting on foreign interests or activities under applicable Internal Revenue Code (IRC) sections and related regulations, and the respective IRS tax forms are due when your income tax return is due, including extensions. The IRS reporting requirements are in addition to the U.S. Department of the Treasury reporting requirements stated above. Therefore, if you have any direct or indirect foreign interests that require disclosures to the IRS, you must provide us with the information necessary to prepare the applicable IRS forms.

Failure to timely file the appropriate forms with the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the IRS may result in substantial monetary penalties. By your signature below, you accept responsibility for informing us if you believe that you may have foreign reporting requirements with the U.S. Department of the Treasury and/or IRS and you agree to timely provide us with the information necessary to prepare the appropriate form(s). We understand that the foreign reporting requirements are very complex, so if you have any questions regarding the application of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and/or the IRS reporting requirements to your foreign interests or activities, please ask us for advice in that regard. We assume no liability for penalties associated with the failure or untimely filing of any of these forms.

Fee For Services

Our fees are based upon the amount of time required at standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. Payment for service is due when rendered and interim billings may be submitted as work progresses and expenses are incurred. A late payment charge of 1.5 percent per month will be assessed on any unpaid balance after deduction of current payments, credits, and allowances made within 30 days of date of billing. This is an annual percentage rate of 18 percent.

This Contract shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland and the venue for any action brought pursuant to this Contract shall be St. Mary's County or Charles County, Maryland.

In the event of any action or proceeding involving any balance not paid within 30 days of when the balance becomes due, that invoice may be sent to any third party for collection with interest charges at the rate stated above and you would be responsible for all collection costs, including reasonable attorney fees whether or not a claim is actually filed.

If an invoice remains unpaid for 60 days and you fail to challenge the validity of the invoiced amount and/or the quality/sufficiency of the work provided within 60 days of the original invoice, Askey, Askey & Associates, CPA, LLC can resort to legal action, including, but not limited to filing a claim in any court of competent jurisdiction.

If any challenge to the validity of the invoiced amount and/or the quality/sufficiency of the work provided arises, the parties then agree first to try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes before resorting to litigation. The costs of any mediation proceeding shall be shared equally by all parties.

Record Retention

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven years. However, we do not keep any original client records, so we will return those to you at the completion of the services rendered under this engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use, including potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies.

As long as you are a client of Askey, Askey & Associates, CPA, LLC we will retain copies of your tax returns for seven years, after which they will be destroyed. Should you elect to disengage Askey, Askey & Associates, CPA, LLC services our policy is to destroy all discontinued client files within three years.

By your signature below, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the above time periods, we shall be free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

Electronic Filing

Your return will be filed electronically with Internal Revenue Service and states when possible, unless you request otherwise. You must review and sign the return before it can be electronically transmitted. If you desire to file on paper, please let us know. We will need you to sign a separate form authorizing paper filing.

Business Financial Statements

As a part of our tax preparation engagement, you may request that we prepare the financial statements of your company, which comprise the annual statement of assets, liabilities, and equity – income tax basis and the related statement of income and expenses – income tax basis for the year ended December 31, 2017. These financial statements will not include a statement of cash flows and the related notes to the financial statements ordinarily included in financial statements prepared in accordance with the income tax basis of accounting.

Our Responsibilities

The objective of our engagement is to prepare financial statements in accordance with the income tax basis of accounting based on information provided by you. We will conduct our engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services (SSARSs) promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA and comply with the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct, including the ethical principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence, and due care.

We are not required to, and will not, verify the accuracy or completeness of the information you will provide to us for the engagement or otherwise gather evidence for the purpose of expressing an opinion or a conclusion. Accordingly, we will not express an opinion or a conclusion or provide any assurance on the financial statements.

Our engagement cannot be relied upon to identify or disclose any financial statement misstatements, including those caused by fraud or error, or to identify or disclose any wrongdoing within the entity or noncompliance with laws and regulations.

Management Responsibilities

The engagement to be performed is conducted on the basis that management acknowledges and understands that our role is the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the income tax basis of accounting. Management has the following overall responsibilities that are fundamental to our undertaking the engagement to prepare your financial statements in accordance with SSARS:

- The selection of the income tax basis of accounting as the financial reporting framework to be applied in the preparation of the financial statements.
- The design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
- The prevention and detection of fraud.
- To ensure that the entity complies with the laws and regulations applicable to its activities.
- The accuracy and completeness of the records, documents, explanations, and other information, including significant judgments, you provide to us for the engagement to prepare financial statements.

- To provide us with—
 - Documentation, and other related information that is relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements,
 - Additional information that may be requested for the purpose of the preparation of the financial statements, and
 - Unrestricted access to persons within your company with whom we determine it necessary to communicate.

The financial statements will not be accompanied by a report. However, you agree that the financial statements will clearly indicate that no assurance is provided on them.

In Closing...

If the foregoing fairly and clearly sets forth your understanding, please sign below, return to our office and retain a copy for your records.

Please accept our sincerest appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Sincerely,

Askey, Askey & Associates, CPA, LLC

P.S. By the way, if there are other tax returns you need us to prepare, such as gift and/or personal property, that are not already specifically identified in this letter, please let us know and we will gladly prepare those returns as well.
